

Oklahoma Educational Levels by County

Percentage of Oklahomans 18 yrs. of age and older without a 9th grade education - 6%

Percentage of Oklahomans 18 yrs. of age and older without a high school diploma - 20%

Based on statistics from the 2000 Census
U.S. Census Bureau
<http://factfinder.census.gov>

O · K · L · A · H · O · M · A
LITERACY RESOURCE OFFICE

Cost Of Illiteracy And Lack Of Education:

- Increased crime, drug use, and incarceration
- Higher unemployment and training cost for business and industry
- Poor progress in school, increased drop out rate
- Increase in welfare
- Increased out of wedlock pregnancy rates
- Increased crime, drug use, and incarceration
- Nationally $17 billion per year as a result of lost income and tax revenue

Benefits of Literacy Training:

- Opposite of above and
- immediate impact on employment opportunities and general quality of life
- betterment of people's lives—enhanced self-esteem
- ability to read instructions on medications and civic documents,
- ability to learn new things expand knowledge, ability to cope with the majority society, understand issues, represent themselves, take responsibility for self-improvement and family health, and better participate in civic affairs

Since 2005

- One of 18 Smart Start communities in Oklahoma.
- Supports families in literacy training
- Public awareness of children's needs
- Improved use of existing programs and resources
- Raising A Reader (RAR).
 - Nationally recognized early literacy program
 - Fosters healthy brain development
 - Parent-child bonding
 - Early literacy skills
 - Engages parents in a daily read-aloud routine with their children
 - Rotates quality age-appropriate books into homes each week.
 - A child-driven process,
 - Motivates families to establish "book cuddling" routines with their little ones, leading to a love of books that lasts a lifetime.

Early Reading First Program

Building Centers of Educational Excellence

- 📖 Approximately $485,000 spent on literacy materials for the Pre-K classrooms in Little Dixie's three county area
- 📖 An average of almost $35,000 per classroom to provide centers of educational excellence
- 📖 "Reading is a basic tool in the living of a good life." ~Mortimer J. Adler

